Come "GOBBLE" up a good book at the library! This November, come check out our displays for Fall, Thanksgiving, Native American Heritage Month, Veteran's Day and National Novel Writing Month. Let's see what else is happening at the library in November.

Theo The Turkey
Until Thanksgiving

Theo the Turkey is back and needs your help. Read books during the month of November to decorate Theo with beautiful feathers. Every 3 books you read equals 1 feather. The more books you read, the more feathers he'll have and the faster he can run away before turkey day!
Family Telescope Night
Nov. 10th @ 7pm (Rain Date: Nov. 22nd)
Join us outside for a beautiful night of looking at the stars, the moon and several planets. Pearl Observatory will be here with their amazing telescope and we are sure to have a spectacular time. Make sure to dress for cold weather!

For Families

Thanksgiving Craft
Nov. 18th from 10-4pm
Stop by the library for a fun fall craft. Using colored strips of paper and glue, create a beautiful pumpkin to celebrate fall and Thanksgiving.

Ages 4-9
(limited supplies)

Local Author Storytime
Nov. 28th @ 6pm
Celebrate the season of thankfulness and family with a very special local author visit. Listen Nadia Khan's Zoey Wonders Why, as Zoey questions who she is and where her family comes from.

Ages 5-10
Teens Take Charge
Oct. 22nd from 6pm

A new program specifically designed for older teens who'd like to work on manifesting their dreams. Join Miss Monica for an hour of learning the basic "Laws of Attraction" and how to apply it to your life as you grow and mature. You will also take part in hands on activities that will assist in your guidance when you leave the group. Friend troubles? Not feeling optimistic? College or Career worries? Or are you always feeling drained and unmotivated? This program will help guide you with fun and simple techniques for anything you may be struggling with.

Ages 15-18

Book Banter
Nov. 19th @ 6pm

Join Miss Monica's Book Banter book club for tweens & teens, on the third Wednesday of the month. Come make friends, read books, and have fun discussions. Registration is required!

Ages 9 - 14
