EXPLORING BLACK ART (Virtual)

MONDAY, FEBRUARY 27
7 PM
VIRTUAL EVENT

This is not your average history class... In a lecture-style setting, uncover hidden backstories and discover little known facts. From slavery and the Harlem Renaissance to the ongoing struggle for social justice, Black artists have used artistic expression as a means to explore the intricacies of Blackness and illustrate the lived experience of Black people in America. Join our art & culture expert as we explore the history behind past and modern art and examine the powerful ideas and messages behind these pieces.

This class includes Q&A opportunities, giving participants the chance to ask more about Black history & culture.

Host: Dr. Denise Rogers is a San Diego native, mother of two, and Professor of Art History at San Diego Mesa College.

This is a virtual event. Registration is required.
