Facts & Fictions in Criminal Justice

Tuesday, November 25 at 6 pm

The purpose of this presentation is to clarify some of the myths presented in the public sector and social media. In addition, the presenter will clarify and inform attendees with information acquired through his experience working over 50 years in the criminal justice system. The following themes will be discussed:

- Once a criminal always a criminal
- Does prison make better criminals?
- There is no rehabilitation in prison
- Being on probation or parole is merely a "slap on the wrist"
- Police use excessive force on a regular basis
- Judges are too lenient

More information is at www.mopl.org.
Registration is requested.

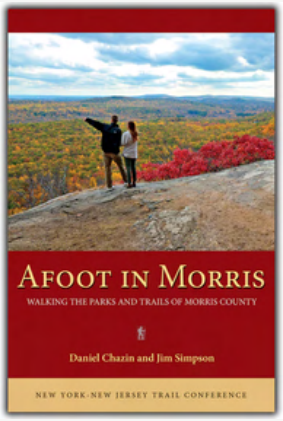
Afoot In Morris - A Guide to Walking the Parks and Trails of Morris County

Monday, November 3 at 6:30 pm

While perhaps not often featured as a top hiking destination, Morris County actually offers a wealth of open space and interesting hiking opportunities. More than 400 miles of trails traverse the wide variety of federal, state, county, and local parks and preserves in this New Jersey county, all of which are rich in natural and cultural history.



Join Daniel Chazin and Jim Simpson as they offer a presentation on their book, Afoot in Morris, a guidebook of the trails and parks throughout Morris County.

Developing Clairvoyance

Saturday, November 8 at 1 pm

Clairvoyance is the most prized gift of the third eye and many of us would like to be clairvoyant. After a brief description of the third eye, and the different aspects of clairvoyance, we will discuss how we can strengthen and activate the third eye. Following that, we will practice three different types of exercises.

This class is presented by Nathalie Frapreau. Nathalie is a registered nurse and has simultaneously practiced energy therapy for more than 20 years.

This program is geared towards adults.
Registration is requested at www.mopl.org.

The Magic of Imagination: A Manifestation Workshop

Monday, November 10 at 1 pm

Words are powerful, as we have always heard. But what happens when you pair the right words with your imagination? Amazing things can shift in your everyday life. We will work with the power of our words in this workshop to teach you ways to transform your world using affirmations, mantras, and visualization.

Bring a journal and a pen.

Registration is required at www.mopl.org as spots are limited.
